

THE ONE-STOP SYSTEM

Under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) of 2014

Regional Workforce Development Boards provide local oversight, accountability, and decision-making for the one-stop system. These appointed boards are charged with determining local needs and developing pathways throughout the system to connect business with skilled employees.

